COUNCIL TO ACT TO AVERT WAR SPREAD

Lake Success, Nov. 13.—(P)—The United Nations mounted a three-pronged diplomatic offensive today, seeking to neutralize Communist China and to prevent the Korean Campaign from exploding into World War III.

On the eve of the departure from Peiping of a Red delegation to the Security Council, diplomats moved swiftly to keep the war localized.

The basic strategy was to reassure Chinese Communist leaders that U. N. forces had no design on their territory, would not interfere with China's supply of electric power from North Korean dams and would build a united, Democratic, Independent Korea which would present no threat to China.

This was combined with a clear warning, however, that continued Red Chinese intervention in Korea would lead to drastic action.

As though to point up these efforts, a spokesman at Gen MacArthur's Tokyo headquarters announced that the current Allied push toward the Yalu river is just a "limited offensive."

Informed observers here considered this indicated that the U. N. military command also was trending gingerly, hoping to win a decisive victory over the North Koreans while giving the Chinese an opportunity to withdraw with a minimum loss of face.

The U. N.'s strategy was applied in these three directions:

1. Australia's James Plimsoll, a member of the seventh-nation Korean commission, flew to Korea to be available, with other commission members, in case Peiping wanted to negotiate a border settlement.

2. The General Assembly's 60-nation economic and social committee, in joint session, pushed a plan for the post-war rehabilitation and relief of Korea.

3. Security Council members continued private discussions on implementing the main strategic line—first made public in a resolution at Friday's meeting—and on what attitude to take when the Chinese Reds arrive.

Communist Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai notified the Council Saturday that he was sending a delegation to Lake Success in accordance with a Sept. 29 invitation to debate charges that sealing off of Formosa by the U. S. Seventh fleet constitutes aggression.

125,000 HUNTERS IN FORESTS FOR BEAR

Harrisburg, Nov. 13.—(P)—An estimated 125,000 hunters opened a six-day bear season today in eight north-central counties of Pennsylvania.

They set out at 7 a. m. to surpass last year's bag of 411 before the closing date 5 p. m., November 18.

Thomas B. Fry, executive director of the state game commission said all indications point to a bag "as good or better than last year."

More than half of the 1949 kill was made in Cameron, McKean, Potter, Tioga, Lycoming, Clinton, and Elk counties. In all 265 black bear were bagged in those areas.

Fry warned hunters the turkey season is closed in bear territory for the week and re-opened at 7 a. m. on Nov. 20.

Cautious Push Carries Unit Within Four Miles of Goal With But Little Opposition

Seoul, Nov. 13.—(P)—A strong column of U. S. marines advanced 5 1/2 miles unopposed today through icy hills toward prized Changjin reservoir.

The cautious push carried the Marines to within four miles of their goal. Defense of the reservoir, facing the center of the North Korean front, was believed to be a major reason for the belated entrance of Chinese Communists into the war.

To the south the Third Division, brought to full strength by Korean and Puerto Rican elements, linked up with the South Korean Eighth Division to form a solid United Nations defense line across the narrow waist of the Korean peninsula.

Fighting flared at both extremes of the battlefield.

North Koreans guarding the approaches to the Soviet border attacked in force on the east coast Monday under cover of a blinding snowstorm. The Red spearhead battalion was led by tanks and self-propelled guns. It pushed across the Orangchon river, about 90 miles from the Soviet border, threatening to outflank a South Korean regiment.

Near the west coast, U. S. First Cavalry Division units advanced a mile and one-half. That carried them halfway to the walled town of Yongbyon. Patrols reached the walls but did not enter the town.

Heavy Communist resistance stopped other First Cavalry troops near Won, eight miles southeast of Yongbyon.

And five miles south of Won, an estimated three regiments of Chinese Reds smashed a two mile dent in lines of the South Korean Sixth Division. Allied fighter-bombers halted this drive, killing about 1,000 Reds in a blazing attack two miles south of Kuno. The South Korean Seventh Division moved up to bolster the Sixth.

Elements of the U. S. 24th Division advanced up to two miles on the extreme western end of the front, about 18 miles west of Won.

An Eighth Army spokesman said this placed them in the vicinity of Tungsan, four miles northeast of Pakchon and about 60 miles southeast of Sinuiju, entryway for Chinese troops from Manchuria.

Fleets of B-29s ranging back of the front hammered again at Sinuiju and set three main supply lines.

Administration Makes Public Blueprint For Vast New American Foreign Aid Plan

Washington, Nov. 13.—(P)—A blueprint for a vast new American foreign aid program, including economic help to western Europe beyond the scheduled end of the Marshall plan, was made public by the administration last night.

It probably will form the basis for President Truman's foreign economic recommendations to the new Congress next year.

The chief executive made public a global survey of economic prospects and American aid in the light of the Communist threat and the western rearmament program.

The survey calls for far-reaching developments in American policy to provide help running into billions of dollars over the next two years—perhaps $8,000,000,000 or more.

Mr. Truman released the report, prepared by former Secretary of the Army Gordon Gray, as a document deserving "the attention and study" of the American people. But administration officials said there is no doubt that its main recommendations will largely shape the president's foreign economic proposal in his state of the union message to Congress in January.

The administration had hard sledding getting funds from the present Congress to finance the third year of the Marshall plan for western European recovery. There is every indication that it will have a rougher time with the new Congress in obtaining approval for an extension of help to Europe beyond the scheduled end of the Marshall plan on June 30, 1952.

DEPT STORE SALES RUN BEHIND 1948

Pittsburgh, Nov. 13.—(P)—The University of Pittsburgh's bureau of business research reports department store sales here are running about 10 per cent behind a comparable period in 1948. The comparison is for four weeks ended October 28.

The bureau said sales for the period were 21 per cent ahead of the same four weeks in 1949 but emphasized sales last year were affected adversely by the steel strike.

Resolutions and policy recommendations will go before the full convention Tuesday for final adoption.

The opening convention dinner tonight turns the spotlight on youth with State Rep. Philip Wilkie, of Indiana, a guest speaker along with Young Republican leaders.

FINANCES BIG PROBLEM FOR FINE REGIME

Harrisburg, Nov. 13.—(P)—Governor-elect John S. Fine this week starts seeking the answer to a big question of the incoming Republican administration:

Will new taxes be necessary to finance the state government in the next two years?

The governor-elect and Gov. James H. Duff, newly elected U. S. Senator, plan to get together this afternoon for their first meeting since their victory at the polls last Tuesday.

On Wednesday both Fine and Duff will go to Philadelphia for discussions with GOP leaders in that city on plans to return that city to the Republican fold.

Fine, before leaving for a Florida vacation, also is expected to sit down with legislative leaders and tax experts to look into the state's financial situation with a view of determining whether new taxes will be needed.

Estimates of increased outlays for the next two years range as high as $150,000,000 to cover the cost of carrying the state veterans bonus, the commonwealth's building program, increased welfare and mental hospital appropriations and higher teachers salaries voted by the 1948 legislature.

In addition, Fine advocates dropping of the state sold drink tax which yields about $29,000,000 in two years and that pledge was written into the GOP platform.

Eight Die In Fires In Western Penna

Garrett, Nov. 13.—(P)—Eight persons died in a series of fires in western Pennsylvania yesterday—six of them children who perished as flames destroyed a frame house in this little coal mining town.

Volunteer firemen battled smoke and flames for two hours in sub-freezing temperatures but were unable to rescue the six child victims of the Garrett fire.

Five of the children were sons and daughters of Harvey Lee, 40, a welder, and his wife, Stella, 37. They were Kay, 15, Darlene, seven, Danny, five, Laverne, three, and Linda Sue, two.

The other victim was Clarence Lee, brother of Mrs. Lee, whose maiden name was the same as that of her husband. Clarence was spending the night at his sister's house.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee were out shopping when the fire broke out. When they learned of the blaze, they rushed home and stood helplessly by as firemen vainly tried to enter the flaming house.

Four Aboard Die In Transport Crash

Greenville, S. C., Nov. 13.—(P)—An Air Force C-82 transport plane crashed into the side of a mountain late Saturday night, carrying the four men aboard to a fiery death.

Deputy Sheriff Waddy Brezale of nearby Pickens county said "if it had flown 150 feet higher it would have gotten over" the peak.

An investigation of the crash is underway.

First report of the crash came from a hunter who thought he had spotted a forest fire. A forest ranger discovered the smoldering wreckage early Sunday.

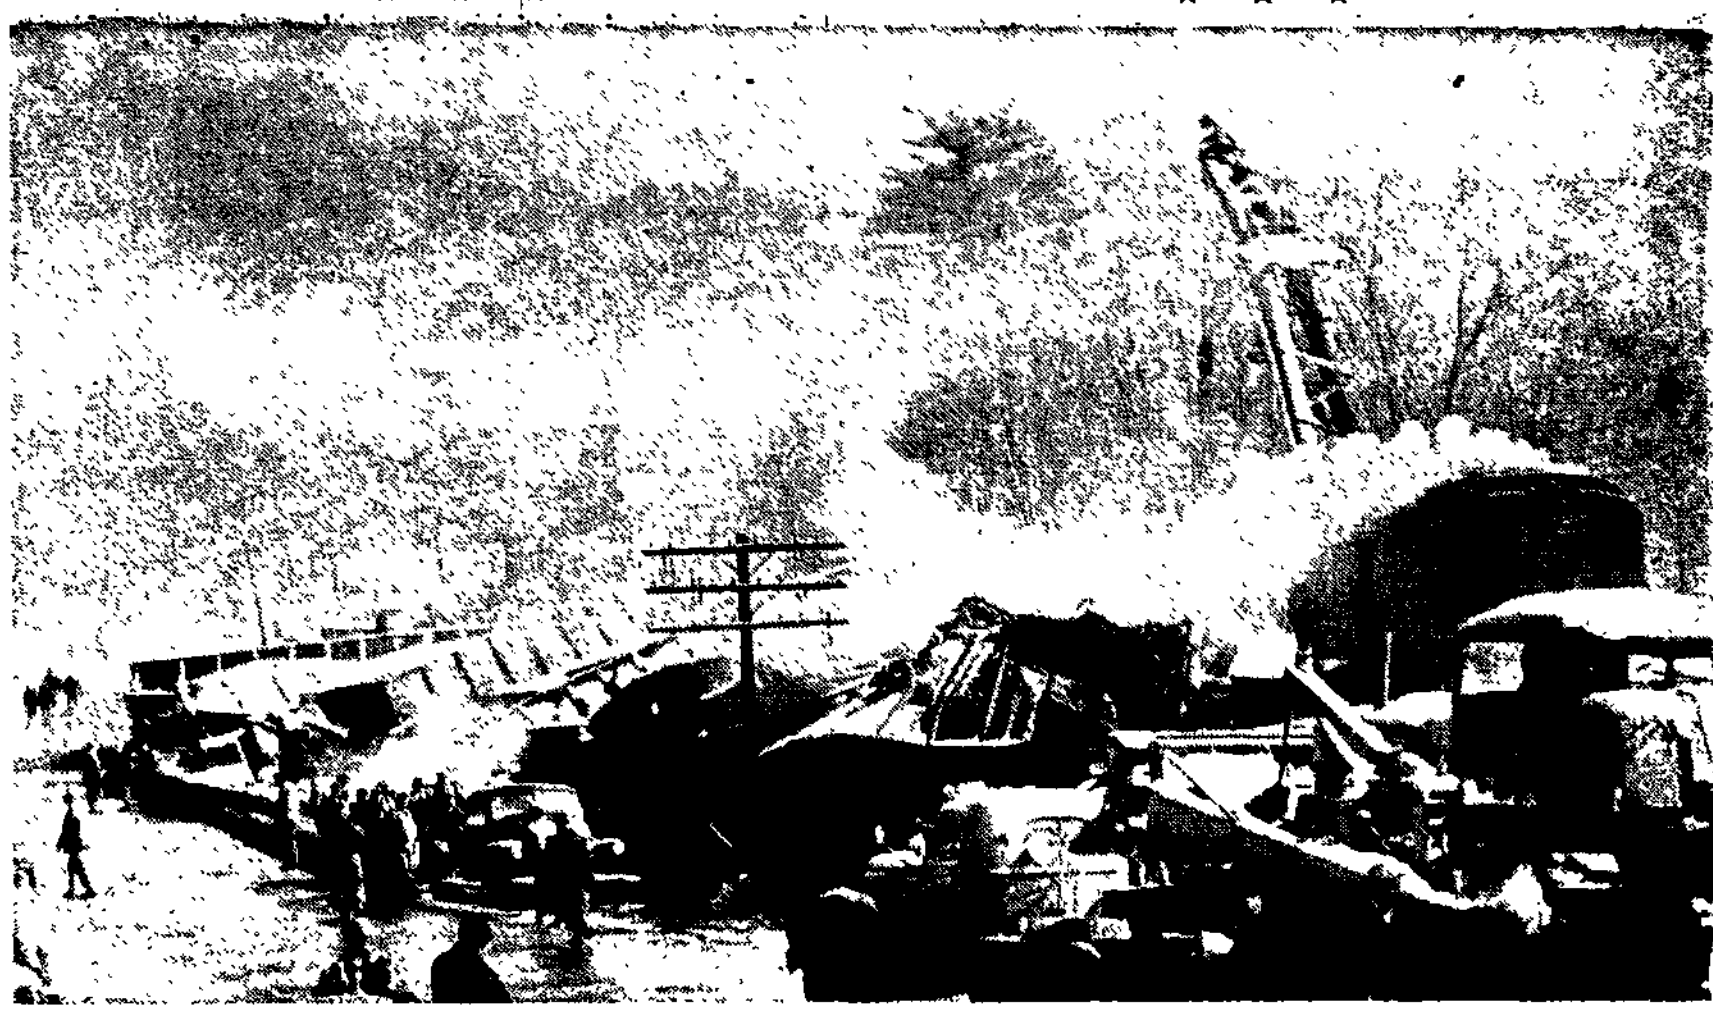

The plane was being transferred from Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Ala., to the Greenville air base.

The victims were three crewmen from a Pittsburgh, Pa., reserve wing called to active duty last month and attached to the base here, and a passenger from Maxwell Field.

Long Distance Operators In New York Claim "Lock Out"

New York, Nov. 13.—(P)—Long distance telephone operators in New York City charged today they were "locked out" when they reported for work after strikers removed picket lines.

The American Telephone & Telegraph Co. said that the charge of "lockout is absurd."

In Pittsburgh, mounted police dispersed a crowd of pickets who surrounded a small Bell truck, halted in traffic. There were no injuries.

The CIO equipment workers struck against the Bell System in 44 states last Thursday in a dispute over wages and length of contract.

Removal of the picket lines in New York was part of the "hit and run" picketing tactics of the CIO communications workers of America to snarl Bell System long distance lines. The flash picketing was designed to catch management unawares and throw long distance service into chaos before enough supervisors can be mobilized to man switchboards.

The New York operators reported at the A. T. T. long lines center in three shifts.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 13.—(P)—Trouble broke out briefly on a picket line outside the Bell Telephone Company's main office here today, but eight mounted policemen quickly restored order. There were no injuries or arrests.

Police said the trouble began when a small Bell truck was halted in traffic in front of the building where 150 CIO communications workers union pickets were pacing in a solid line.

A group of shouting pickets surrounded the vehicle. The police on horseback pushed into the crowd and dispersed it. The truck was escorted away from the building.

ORDER ON ALUMINUM

No One Seriously Injured In Second Serious Accident To Ore Train In Recent Weeks

Damage expected to exceed $100,000 was caused early Sunday morning when 33 cars of a Pennsylvania Railroad ore train left the rails and plunged over an embankment at Deer Head Inn, west of Garland, early Sunday morning.

No one was hurt, although two crewmen in the 70-car diesel-drawn train were badly shaken up. The diesel-power units did not leave the rails.

More than 2700 feet of track was torn up, blocking all traffic on the Pennsylv between Corry and Warren.

It was the second serious derailment of an ore train in the Warren area in recent weeks. The first occurred near the Pittsfield station and caused damage estimated at approximately $50,000.

The heavily-laden steel gondolas were twisted into grotesque shapes and piled up like jackstraws between the railroad tracks and Highway Route 77. Iron ore was spilled over a wide area, and some of the cars were jammed out onto the pavement, nearly blocking the entire road.

According to reports, one motorist narrowly escaped being trapped in the middle of the wreckage. He was eastbound on Route 77 and had just rounded the sharp curve, paralleling the tracks when the freight cars started tumbling, with a roar, down the embankment onto the highway behind him.

Two full wreck crews from Warren and Erie and more than 80 trackmen worked at top speed throughout Sunday and today in an effort to restore traffic on the line. They expected to have the tracks cleared and traffic reopened by 2 o'clock this afternoon.

However, the nature of the track-up, and its location on a curve atop a hill made the going extremely difficult. Bulldozers had to be used to clear away the big piles of spilled ore, once the derricks had lifted away the crumpled and ripped cars.

Thirty-two of the cars in the middle of the train jumped the tracks on the curve. Another car, pile-car collision.

Three Hunters Spot Broken Rail on the P R R at Titusville

Titusville, Nov. 13.—Warning given by three hunters and relayed by Titusville police to Pennsylvania railroad employees prevented the northbound evening passenger train from roaring into town Saturday at its usual speed and striking a broken rail a half mile below the station.

The break, a fresh one, was near Milepost 121, about opposite the end of Dairy street on the city's South Side. The track gang replaced the rail in less than two hours Saturday evening and only two southbound freight trains were delayed.

Walking north on the tracks, empty-handed after the hunt, were Merle Dibble, 18, of 825 East Main street, Jame L'Huillier, 19, of 515 Dairy street, and Hunter Baughman, 20, of Pleasantville. Dibble spotted the break, which consisted of a piece, 5 1/2 inches long out of the top of a 130-pound rail at the end, where it is held to the next rail by joint bars.

The break was new, but the missing piece could not be found. The gang pulled the spikes, unbolted the joint bars and lifted out the broken rail. It had been made in 1918.

Th so-called new rail, made in 1928, was a little long for the gap, so with rail cutter and maul Vourakis and a helper cut off a section. Then the replacement rail was put in place, spiked down, and was drilled to permit the joint bar bolts to go through it. In this process a hit on the rail drilling machine broke, but despite the delay the gang left the scene about 8:15 and reported to the dispatcher that trains could again move through Titusville at normal speed.

Feminine Members of State G.O.P. In Harrisburg for a Three-Day Conclave

Harrisburg, Nov. 13.—(P)—The feminine members of Pennsylvania's victorious Republican party gathered here today to map a continuing program of "aggressive political action."

Future political planning took top priority as the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women opened its 23rd annual convention.

Some 1,200 delegates, representing 52,000 members and 400 local councils, were registered for the three-day conclave.

Also up for consideration were plans for promotion of a "greater awareness" of civil defense needs in Pennsylvania.

Business activities on top today included a meeting by the board of directors and an afternoon session by the policy planning and

Heaviest Highway Toll In Two Months

By The Associated Press

Highway accidents throughout Pennsylvania killed 17 persons over the week end, one of the heaviest two-day tolls in many months.

In addition, eight persons burned to death, six of them children in a house that was destroyed at Garrett in Southern Somerset County. An eight-month-old child burned to death in his crib near Oil City and a woman died in her flaming home at Sharon.

There was no apparent cause for the large number of highway accidents. Snow fell in northwestern Pennsylvania near Erie, and there were scattered flurries in other portions of the state, but most of the fatalities occurred on roads completely clear.

Most serious of the accidents was on the Pennsylvania turnpike, 18 miles west of Carlisle, where three men were killed in a multiple-car collision.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Each day as I read the Warren Times Mirror I read of several cases of cars being damaged while being parked on the streets of Warren. It would appear to me that of all the policemen that walk the streets and ride around they should be able to locate at least a few of the reckless drivers. Maybe they would lose 5c in the parking meters or a dollar fine, but consider what the owner of the damaged car loses when it is damaged to $50.00 or less. Which makes more sense the 5c to the police or the $50.00 to the individual. The taxpayers money could be spent more justly by spending more time looking for such violators than standing over the parking meters or joy riding around town. From what knowledge I have they don't waste even the thought of looking for such hit and run drivers.

Perhaps the police of Warren need a few pointers or a little educating as to how they should begin to look for such inconsiderate drivers. Here are a few ideas: Have all garages in Warren County and it would also be possible to have a mutual agreement with other counties, whereby all garages would report all body damages and police in each locality would make an inspection of damaged cars before repair begins, thereby they could compare reports of damaged cars with repairs being made and most likely come along with a few arrests. Stiffer fines and jail terms lengthened for continual violators. Educate public to note license number of car damaging parked vehicle and reporting same to police immediately. Educate drivers to fact that their personal liability and property damage insurance, which is practically a must to own or operate a car, will pay for the other party's car, whereas the party that finds his car damaged can get only repairs for the amount over $50.00, and install upon the driver's mind that if a parked vehicle is bumped he must leave his name, address, and license number or else face a sizeable fine and jail term. And last but not least just how would he like to have someone smash his car up and just drive off without even stopping to think of such a small item.

Owner of a damaged car.

Clearfield County Ends Inquiry Into Tragedy Feb. 5th

Clearfield, Nov. 13—(AP)—Clearfield county District Attorney Joseph A. Dague said today "no prosecution is planned against any person" in connection with the taxicab wreck deaths last February 5 in DuBois of Mrs. Josephine Brobst, 32, and Myrtle Sone, 24.

Dague, in a statement, said his decision to make a public announcement is prompted "by the publicity and public interest given to the investigation x x x as well as the numerous rumors and innuendoes, and the inaccurate information which have come to the attention of this office concerning the case x x x."

The district attorney declared the investigation "is presently concluded" and that no prosecution of anyone is planned "unless additional information should be presented to us."

Mrs. Brobst and Sone, the driver of the cab, were injured fatally when the vehicle jumped a curb while travelling down a steep street in DuBois, plunged over a five-foot embankment and smashed into a tree. Mrs. Brobst's husband, Ernest (Achie), escaped serious injury although he was hospitalized 15 days.

In a subsequent investigation of the wreck, Dague ordered the bodies of both victims exhumed. Autopsies were performed last April 12.

Dague said the autopsies disclosed "there was no evidence on either body of stabbing or gunshot wounds and both victims died as a result of fractures of the skull."

Dr. Howard Wilson, president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, has appointed Giulio J. Fino, Gannon College student and son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Fino, 224 Onondaga avenue, Warren, as field representative for the International Relations Club in northwestern Pennsylvania and southwestern New York.

In addition to this appointment, Fino will serve on the Pennsylvania committee of the People's Section for the United Nations. This announcement shows the important part colleges and universities portray in the success of the United Nations. For the interest and education of society in general, projects sponsored by the International Relations Clubs are held very high by UNESCO.

It will be recalled that Gannon College, Erie, was named as the fourth outstanding school in the nation for having the most significant programs and projects. This honor, accorded at the international convention at the University of Michigan, is doubly important inasmuch as Gannon's enrollment is under 1,000, while the three ranked above it are in the 8,000 or over classification.

ATTACKED BY OWL

Albert, an employee of the Morrison Brothers farm at Seneca, early Thursday evening was attacked by an unusually large monkey-faced owl as he entered the silo at the barn to throw down ensilage for stock feed. The attack occurred at dusk, when Thayer neglected to turn on an electric light inside the structure. The first swoop of the big bird struck the man in the face, almost knocking him down, and twice more it dove at him before he was able to stun it with a pitchfork and throw it to the cement outside the silo, killing the bird.

KILLED BY OWN GUN

A charge of No. 4 shot from his own shotgun killed Charles W. Pine, 36, of Cochran as he was crawling through a barbed wire fence Thursday evening. His body was found Friday morning near Route 322 four miles south of Cochran by a hunter, Ralph Hendrick of Linesville. Lying under a barbed wire fence with his ankles entangled in several feet of smooth wire, Pine's body was about 200 feet from his car parked along the highway near the Hollabaugh farm. His gun was found beside the body. It was a 12-gauge with pump action and had a discharged shell in the firing chamber, with two live shells in the magazine. The charge struck behind the victim's left ear and tore the top of the head away. It was the first hunting fatality in Crawford county this season.

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND WALTER

Two well known young people from Youngsville were united in marriage at 8 p. m. Friday, November 10, in a pretty candlelight service performed in Saron Lutheran church by the Rev. Carl J. Franzen. The bride was Yvonne Schnell; the bridegroom, Raymond Walter, son of Clarence Walter. Lillian Swanson, at the piano, played traditional bridal selections and Marilyn Loomis sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white slipper satin gown with fitted bodice, long sleeves tapering to points of lace mitts, while the bridesmaids wore over the wrists, and a full skirt ending in a long train. Orange blossoms held her fingertip veil, and white and yellow roses fashioned her bouquet. Her only jewelry was the bridegroom's gift, a pearl brooch.
She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Victor Schnell, as matron of honor, with Donna Jones and Joanne Zastawney as bridesmaids. Mrs. Schnell wore dusty rose satin with matching mitts, while the bridesmaids wore green satin frocks and mitts. Their headresses and arm sprays were of bronze mums. Susan Jean Schnell, niece of the bride and flower girl, wore white satin with a headband of white velvet held with small yellow mums. She carried a white satin basket filled with matching mums. Jimmie Schnell, nephew of the bride and ring bearer, wore a brown velvet suit and carried the rings on a heart-shaped pillow of white satin.
Herbert Johnson was best man and ushers were Victor Schnell and John Gustafson, all of Youngsville.
The bride's mother wore taupe silk crepe with dark brown accessories and a Talisman rose corsage. Mrs. John Gustafson, sister of the bridegroom, wore green velvet with taupe accessories and a corsage of yellow mums.

The reception followed immediately in the church parlors, where Mrs. Claire Schnell presided at a table done in yellow and white tapers. A five-tier wedding cake was served by Mrs. Roy D. Olofson, Jamestown, N. Y.
For a wedding trip through Indiana, the bride chose a taupe suit with dark brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.
Both young people are graduates of Youngsville High School, the bride in 1950; the bridegroom in 1948. She is employed at the East End Store and he at Walter Hardware.
Pre-nuptial parties for her were given by Mrs. Roy Olofson, Mrs. Wendell Engstrom, Mrs. Victor Schnell, Mrs. Claire Schnell, Mrs. Marlin Schnell; Mrs. John Gustafson and Mrs. Lyle Johnson; and the Missionary Society of Saron Lutheran church. The rehearsal dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Olofson in the west dining room of the Hotel Jamestown.

Volunteers Help Install Christmas Lights

Volunteer workmen completed work on installing strings of Christmas lights at six downtown intersections in Warren yesterday. Lights also will be placed at three other intersections next weekend.

The work was done by 17 members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Union, Locals 174 and B1124, AFL. In one of the finest civic gestures forthcoming in some time, the men offered to install the lights on their own time. Yesterday's work crew included Harry Bailey, Harry Gnagay, Fran Reiff, Anthony Font, George Boyer, Warren Yeagle, John Smosna, Clayton Stoldt, Roger Thomas, Edward Schubert, Chester Dunham, Allen Simpson, Ed Bessell, Paul Smith, Arthur Carlson, Joe Duffield, Charles Barone, Kenneth Simmons and Ray Sampson.

Installations were made over the weekend at the triangle at Second and Pennsylvania avenue, W. Liberty and Second avenue, Market and Pennsylvania avenue, Hickory and Third avenue, and Franklin at Pennsylvania avenue, East.

Lights also will be installed next weekend at Poplar and Pennsylvania avenue, W. Hickory and Pennsylvania avenue, W., and Liberty at Third avenue.

Only one "incident" was reported by crewmen during their work. A light string had been stretched across Hickory street at Third avenue preparatory to raising it overhead, when a motorist, proceeding north in Hickory street, approached the intersection. The workmen attempted to flag him down, and he yelled back, "What do you mean, I got the green light?" His car passed over the light string, shattering three of the light sockets.

The Christmas lighting project is being worked out by the Chamber of Commerce, and is under supervision of Ben Kinnear, Retailers Committee chairman, and Carl Lundahl, sub-chairman of the Christmas Decoration committee.

Funds have been donated by local retail stores and business places for the purchase of the light strings, bulbs and other equipment, but such an extensive program would not have been possible had not the Electrical Workers made their generous offer to install the lights free of charge.

Michigan Votes To Permit Retailing Of Colored Oleo

Harrisburg—The overwhelming victory of Michigan's referendum to legalize yellow oleomargarine is heralded by Pennsylvania housewives as a sure omen of the passage of similar legislation in Pennsylvania.

By a 2 to 1 majority, Michigan voters on Tuesday ended their two-year battle to repeal the state's antiquated law prohibiting the sale of yellow oleomargarine.

The widespread consequences of the Michigan referendum were evinced today in a statement by Mrs. William L. Collins, president of the Harrisburg chapter of the League of Women Voters. Speaking on behalf of the League, she said:

"The legal discrimination against margarine has long been of both national and state-wide interest to the League of Women Voters. It has been placed on our agenda to be taken up for action with the 1951 Pennsylvania Legislature.

"The referendum favoring colored oleomargarine in the dairy state of Michigan is an indication of public sentiment no Pennsylvania Legislature can ignore."

The Michigan referendum had its roots in a petition signed by thousands of Michigan voters in 1948, under the initiative provisions of the state constitution, to introduce a bill legalizing yellow margarine. The bill was quickly

Trucking Industry Has Huge Payroll In Warren County

The trucking industry in Warren county provided employment for 1,851 men and women, paying them an estimated $5,154,370 in wages in 1949, as compared to statewide totals of $86,987 employment and $1,071,953,990 in wages.

As of March 31 this year, the industry's investment in the county totaled $7,817,704 and had 2,332 vehicles registered, with the total registration in the state 452,367 truck and an investment of $1,797,649,412.

"This report on the contribution of the trucking industry as contained in the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association's 1950 yearbook, 'Trucking in Pennsylvania,' indicates a steady increase in dependable motor truck service both in Warren county and throughout the state," said Glenn E. Fisher, PMTA county chapter president.

"As compared to the previous year, total wages paid by the trucking industry in Pennsylvania increased $55,077,990, vehicle registration is 12,991 more and $218,053,848 was added to the investment."

"In Warren county investment increased $1,065,264 over the previous year with 102 more trucks added to the total county registration."

Fisher said, "the statewide investment in the trucking industry of over a billion and a half dollars is more than the combined capital investments in chemicals and allied products, glass and stone products, lumber and its manufacture, paper and quarry products, paper and printing, and tobacco and its products in Pennsylvania."

"Although it is the second largest employer in the state, it is a locally owned and operated industry, contributing to and supporting the local community. It serves every community in Pennsylvania, including 4,066 that depend entirely on truck transportation for everything."

GRADUATES WITH HONORS: A news release from the Pittsburgh Institute of Mortuary Science, says that Wendell F. Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman O. Peterson, 15 Hertz street, was graduated from that school with high honors at the 21st commencement exercises, held at St. Peter's Episcopal church, October 1. Mr. Peterson was the recipient of the Faculty Award given each year to the student who has achieved the highest scholastic average in all branches of the curriculum. During his time at school he was a member of the college glee club and was assistant editor of the year book, The Orbit. In recognition of his high scholastic standing he was elected by members of the faculty to membership in the Pi Sigma Fraternity and received the gold key. Since his graduation Mr. Peterson is affiliated in business with his father, at the Peterson Funeral Home, 1003 Pennsylvania avenue east. The above photo shows Mr. Peterson (left) being presented the award by Prof. John Rebol, president of the college. (Trinity Court Studio, Pittsburgh.)

NOT UNIFORM
Though attempts at uniformity, and thus interchangeability, in screw threads date from 1841, U. S. and British threads still are not uniform, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Japan's industry derives about 60 percent of its energy from coal, 28 percent from water power and the remainder from petroleum and natural gas.

SEVEN LOSE LIVES IN TRAFFIC MISHAPS

Pittsburgh, Nov. 13—(AP)—Traffic mishaps killed seven persons in western Pennsylvania during the week end, two of them children struck by autos.

Gary Sparkenbaugh, three, of suburban Oakdale, met death last night as he was hit on routes 22-30 seven miles west of Crafton in Allegheny county.

A few hours earlier in Clarion county Dwight Eugene Richard, Jr., six, was killed by an auto while hurrying from church to his home in Fairmount.

Among other victims was: John A. Patterson, 38-year old truck driver; his vehicle rammed into the side of a concrete underpass on route 62 two miles north of Mercer.

groggy from a dose of sleeping medicine and chilled from exposure to the 9-degree above zero temperature, but otherwise unharmed.

Later, after they found two more ransom notes and a 23-calibre pistol in the woman's pockets, the FBI said she admitted during the child away Friday from the Stamm's ranch estate in the wooded outskirts of Santa Fe.

Dr. Campbell, who has a four-year-old adopted son, Rufus, said she was beset with debts and unpaid bills and worried about her elderly parents, both injured in an auto crash last month.

She was formally charged with kidnaping last night and held under $25,000 bond. If convicted, she would face from five years in prison to death in the electric chair under New Mexico's severe kidnap law.

Linda's mother, 32-year-old Mrs. Allen Stamm, was shocked to find the admitted kidnaper was the same respected women's specialist who had delivered her second son, Craig Stamm, just two years ago.

But after her 30-hour ordeal she had little sympathy for Dr. Campbell.

"I hope she will never be free again to bring to others what she has brought to us in heartaches and worry," she said.

Dr. Campbell said she had enticed Linda away from home by promising to take her to her mother—who was at a bridge party. Then she drugged the child at her office, wrapped her in a blanket and left her overnight in an abandoned ranch cabin.

Despite her admissions, personal and professional friends rallied to Dr. Campbell's defense and said she must have been mentally deranged to have done such a thing.

No One Seriously Injured In Accident to Ore Train

farther ahead on the train, also left the rails and tore up a section of track east of the scene of the pileup.

Cause of the derailment has not been determined. However, it is possible that a drawhead on one of the cars could have dropped and struck the ties. The train had set off a car with a broken drawhead at Corry, a short time before the wreck occurred.

Trainmen were Engineer McGuire and Conductor Diece, both of Erie.

Donald Wharton, owner of the Deer Head Inn, said he heard a "big crash" and that the noise continued for more than a minute and a half. He rushed out, saw the wreck, and then placed lanterns and flares on the highway at each end of the wreck to warn motorists.

Mrs. Wharton, meanwhile, telephoned State Police at Corry, and then called Pennsylvania Railroad stations at Warren and Corry to warn them of the wreck.

State Police from Corry and Warren were on duty at the scene throughout Sunday to keep traffic moving through the area. Thousands of persons visited the scene to watch the railroad crews untangle the wreckage.

The train originated at the Erie ore docks and was enroute to eastern Pennsylvania steel mills near Bethlehem.

THE MARKETS

New York, Nov. 13—(AP)—

Much of the zip departed from the post-election stock market rally today, but most issues clung to their gains of last week. After execution at the opening of week-end buy and sell orders—many occasioned by Saturday's Armistice Day Market holiday—business slowed down considerably. Steels and motors were active and, in most cases, were higher. Steels gained from fractions to a point.

There were more gains than losses today, but in many cases prices stuck fast at the closing levels of Friday. Chances were small for the most part and only in rare instances did an advance of as much as $1 a share cross the ticker tape.

equipment. At 6:35 a. m. Saturday, some lumber, laying across an oven furnace in the laboratory of the Florida Company, Liberty St., became ignited. All equipment rolled on the call. Firemen used a 2 1/2 gallon soda-acid extinguisher, and only minor damage was reported. At 6:20 p. m. yesterday, a call came from the residents of Millon Samuelson, 214 Russell St., where a refrigerator was leaking.
Firemen carried the box to the back porch. There was no fire and no damage.

DELINQUENT FRANKS

Two brothers aged 8 and 10 and children stole and abandoned four bicycles, broke into the Oil City

Candy Co., and Wolf's Head service station and ransacked four cars. They ended up their wanderings by stealing glider cushions, throw rugs and a robe, made a bed behind a signboard near the bus terminal, and went to sleep.
For some time the trio were in the custody of the Children's Aid Society and afterward were released in the custody of the father. The children will have hearings in juvenile court.

Large Number Of Emergencies Are Treated at Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Barnes, of Turtle Creek, were discharged from Warren General Hospital yesterday and sent to their home by ambulance. They were injured in an automobile accident on Sunday, October 29, which claimed the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Maurer, of Wilkensburg.

Emergency cases treated at the hospital over the weekend included the following:

On Friday, Vern Grunder, Warren RD 1, cut his left hand on a cornucutter. He was treated for a laceration between the thumb and index finger and discharged.

Also on Friday, Jack Rivett, Warren RD 2, employed at the Annex Garage, was treated for a small laceration of the left side of the face when he was struck by tire tools.

On Saturday, Joseph Foley, 4 1/2 Water street, employed at Victor Metal Products, Inc., slipped and fell five feet, sustaining a deep laceration of the left thigh. He received extensive suturing and was discharged.

Victor Anderson, 1208 Pennsylvania avenue, west, employed at Lewis Market, was treated Saturday for a wound in the left hand sustained when a sharp bone penetrated the hand while he was trimming meat.

Yesterday, Roger Yeagle, Warren RD 1, was treated for gas fumes from a motor. He was discharged after examination ascertained that he was all right.

Arthur Hackenberry, Sheffield, employed at Penn Bottle Works sustained a scalp laceration yesterday when he struck the top of his head on a bottle stacking machine. He was discharged following application of dressings.

Five Members of Company I Spend Weekend at Home

Five members of Company I, 112th Infantry, 28th Division, spent a weekend leave with parents and five in Warren, making the trip from Camp Atterbury, Ind., in a car driven by Leslie Eriksen. Others in the party were John Matha, Lloyd Paul, Clarence Stout and Gene R. Robillard.

They report the Company has been in the fringe range for the past two weeks, and are anticipating a less strenuous time at least for a short period. The food, they say, is very much improved.

"HOW I RELIEVE DISTRESS of MONTHLY FEMALE AILMENTS which make me so nervous several days before!"

"Almost every month I suffered from cramps, headache, or backache—due to female functional ailments. What bothered me most was that I'd start feeling so nervous, tense and strangely restless several days before my period.

"My druggist recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve this distress. He told me to take it regularly throughout the month to help build up resistance against such female misery (it tastes swell in a little fruit juice). I must say Lydia Pinkham's Compound is simply wonderful and gives me amazing relief—not only from monthly pain but pre-period nervous tension and tired, dragged-out feelings of this nature. I urge every girl and woman troubled this way to try Pinkham's Compound."

P. S. Many women prefer Lydia Pinkham's TABLETS with added iron. Handy to carry in purse.

Tag Days Staged As Benefit for Youth Canteen Fail to Reach Goal of $1,000

The youth unit of the Warren Youth Canteen failed to reach its goal of $1,000 through the Tag Days held Friday and Saturday of last week, bringing in only $562.55.

Mr. Weather Man himself is partly to blame for the small results, making it too cold for the girls selling the tags to remain at their posts for a very long period.

However, the girls did do a fine job and deserve a great deal of credit for their efforts. The sales began at three o'clock Friday afternoon and continued to nine over what was served them when they first went into camp.

The television set furnished through the efforts of the local VFW Post with the cooperation of Sylvania Electric, Inc., is furnishing some fine entertainment in the day room, and much appreciated by all members of the company.

In connection with the visit of the Warren boys the following Associated Press dispatch regarding plans for suspension of training in the Armed Forces during the Christmas holidays, will be read with much satisfaction by friends and relatives of the boys.

Washington. —(AP)—The army today ordered troop training in the United States suspended from Dec. 23 to Jan. 1, inclusive, to give soldiers an opportunity to visit their families during the Christmas holidays.

An announcement said the period includes two legal holidays and two weekends. Thus, it said, a minimum loss of training days will be involved.

Originally, the army had planned to suspend training for two weekends only. The new plan will provide time for soldiers stationed at considerable distances from their homes to visit their families.

"It is expected," the army said, "that opportunities to visit their families will be granted to as many personnel as can be spared."

After the first of the year, the announcement said, the tempo of training will be stepped up "to the extent that further interruptions will be extremely unlikely."

Dinners were served to the workers between six and seven. Sales were scheduled for nine to four on Saturday, but the cold weather forced most of the girls in a little after three.

Jean Mostert had the high total brought in for the two days with $35.90, while Shirley Slocum was high on Friday with $23.36, and Sally Lannen on Saturday with $32.89.

The committee heads as well as the entire membership of the Canteen, wish to thank the people who contributed to their worthy cause. The funds received will be of a great assistance in getting the building in shape for opening a program.

The idea of building a Canteen that would offer the youth of Warren and vicinity a place where they could go for social, recreational, and educational activities, came about in the spring of 1949. James C. Hengst, boys' work secretary of the YMCA, made good use of such an idea and put his Phalanx Fraternity boys to work cleaning out the old miniature golf course behind the "Y."

Long hours of work were spent in the annex, cleaning up old junk and digging up broken sewers and replacing them with new. A summer lapsed before any more could be done. Then Mr. Hengst took the initiative of organizing the present Canteen Committee. The committee was made up of representatives of various organizations of Warren and interested persons, and was then broken into youth and adult units.

The adult unit elected officers and formed a non-profit corporation and managed to secure some donations to start the work on the building.

Bake sales, dances, etc., were held by the youth unit as its share in building the Canteen Fund. Last year the Jaycees sponsored the "Parade of Magic," which was a big boost to the treasury and allowed the placing of a floor in the building.

At present, members of the youth unit are working hard for what is going to be theirs. They, too, have chosen officers, written a constitution, and organized standing committees. Hardly a week passes that some change isn't made in the building, due to the boys' and girls' ambition to complete what they have needed for so long.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce is helping the Canteen out again this year by holding a Vau-deville Show on November 25. With the proceeds of this benefit, the Canteen should be available.

"The Spot" is the name selected for the Canteen and the color scheme is to be green and yellow. Membership will be for freshmen through twenties but activities will be held that will include all age groups, the purpose being to provide a supervised recreation center to carry out a program for the youth of Warren and vicinity.

It is encouraging to hear that the boys and girls of Warren, for whom the Canteen is primarily intended, are sufficiently interested to go out after what they want with only a minimum of outside help. That, in itself, is an indication that the project will be a success and will be something to be respected and proud of for those whose assistance made it possible.
